Chapter 1 – Down the Rabbit Hole

It's October 28, 2011, the Friday night before Halloween. Alice is sitting at home with her sister, bored and wishing she had something to do, when she's startled out of her seat by a White Rabbit mumbling, "It's eight pm and I'm late for a very important date." She follows the bouncing rabbit down a rabbit hole, where she suddenly finds herself falling a long way down into a curious hall with many locked doors. It's the MODERN Honolulu. She finds a key to a door too small for her to fit, but through the eyehole she sees a Halloween gone wild party. The party looks like nothing her parents would ever do. Everyone is dressed like well known and not-so-well known literary characters. Alice wants to join the party but she can't fit through the door! She looks down... and just next to her, lying on the ground, she spies a purple bottle labeled "DRINK ME." Indulging in the mysterious but delicious liquid, she begins to shrink.

Join us to find out what happens next at this year's GIFT Foundation of Hawaii's charity event. Don't just hear about it or read about it in the paper! Join us for the live action with this year's theme "Literati Glitterati – Stranger Than Fiction," where sordid stories and colorful fictional characters will be brought to life as we raise funds for three local charities: Hospice Hawaii's Pediatric Program, Mental Health America of Hawaii's Stop Youth Suicide and Bullying Project, and Project Visitation.

This is The GIFT Foundation of Hawaii's 9th year of raising funds at the best party of the year. We return this year to The MODERN Honolulu, the scene of last year's memorable party. We had so much fun that we're doing a sequel. And trust us; this sequel will be better than the original!
